How is this achieved?

Focussing on retaining skilled people and making better use of their skills is a top HRD priority. At the same time, organisations seek to minimise costs. That's where Gow Learning comes in. Regardless of what learning is undertaken within your organisation, INSIDE OUT participants:

- Showcase their skills against national competency standards
- Access weekly bite-sized tutorials to reinforce key work skills relevant to their roles
- Access weekly "Success Secrets" for ongoing motivation and inspiration.

How is this cost-effective for you?

*INSIDE OUT participants may be eligible for state government payroll tax rebates, which could be a major saving for your organisation. *Plus, there may be federal government incentives of up to $4,000 per eligible employee.

Who is INSIDE OUT for?

INSIDE OUT focuses on the competitive edge face of your business including Leadership, Sales, Customer Contact & Administration.

Employer benefits

- Little or no cost to you, with possible government incentives and payroll tax rebates
- Complements your existing L&D initiatives
- Unobtrusive and flexible to implement
- Allows HRD to be focussed in other areas
- Impacts employee performance, retention, motivation & sense of value

Now that's something to get excited about!
