To whom it may concern

I am writing in reference to the partnership we currently enjoy with Gow Learning International who are working with us to provide traineeships and qualification pathways for our team members. Their programs mesh closely with our internal courses and provide a valuable step in transferring learning from the training room to the workplace.

What I enjoy most about the programs being undertaken is that they are simple to implement, flexible and unobtrusive. Everything is set in place and organised between Gow, the students and their managers, without me having to pay a great deal of attention to the process.

I have had very positive feedback from the students who feel a great sense of satisfaction – they really feel as though they have achieved something. They also gain a great deal more confidence as they learn and apply their learning to the workplace.

The support that the trainees and I have received from Gow is excellent. Nothing is too much trouble. Feedback is provided both to myself and the trainees and feedback is also well received.

I would have no hesitations in recommending Gow and provide my full support in their endeavors.

Yours sincerely
